To Whom it may concern,

As an active Oakland County Realtor in the high end market, I often have occasion to provide my clients with advice and access to my rolodex of contacts for various trades and professional services. I am very careful who I recommend as the work or service they provide, reflects on me; for this reason....I only recommend the best!

Andrew and Linda Adelson from Everything Goes Estate Liquidations Inc., are one of the companies I recommend exclusively for clients interested in lightening the load for a big move, liquidating a relatives estate, or even disassembling a home prior to demolition.

They provide the best service in the business....I know this not only from comments from the clients I have recommended them to, but even from personal experience in attending their sales. That's right, I am an estate sale shopper and have attended sale hosted by many companies; there is no better than Everything Goes Estate Liquidations Inc.

They are detail oriented in everything from the presentation of the items they sell, but also the pricing and the way in which they conduct their sales and the professional staff they employ.

If you are looking for a company to help you with an estate....I highly recommend Everything Goes Estate Liquidations Inc.

Sincerely,

Brian D. Milidrag
